About the Seminar

The Urology Update: Spring 2016 Urology Seminar is designed to provide you with current information on assessing, diagnosing, and treating common urologic conditions in the clinical setting. Topics are selected to enhance the education of general urologic concerns, as well as introduce new and dynamic issues in urology. Participants will be able to incorporate practical pearls from the seminar into their daily clinical practice.

Who Should Attend

This seminar is designed for nurses, nurse practitioners, physician assistants, medical assistants, and other health care professionals who encounter patients with urologic health issues.

Accreditation Statement

The activity has been submitted to American Nephrology Nurses' Association for approval to award contact hours. American Nephrology Nurses' Association is accredited as an approver of continuing nursing education by the American Nurses Credentialing Center's Commission on Accreditation.
